Key Facts For International Pupils

Our Mill Hill Schools

Mill Hill School & Mill Hill International

Both schools are located in London and set in 150 acres of beautiful grounds, quite unique in the capital city, with quick links to King's Cross St. Pancras and other central locations.

Pupils of both Mill Hill International and Mill Hill School enjoy great integration through their activities, excursions and more. Whilst academic programme courses are quite separate, sports teams are represented by pupils from both schools as are the drama and music productions. Boarders reside together in the same four boarding houses. Across the two schools, there are roughly 800 Day pupils and 225 Boarding pupils.

MILL HILL SCHOOL

Mill Hill School delivers a rounded education for all pupils, whatever their individual strengths and talents. We are an academically aspirational environment, where learning happens at pace, but that is only part of what we offer. The co-curricular programme at Mill Hill is unrivalled in terms of breadth and excellence and is a significant strength of our offering. Pupils studying here are expected to have a high level of English to be able to mix and integrate with the predominantly local pupil population, making the most of their studies and feeling comfortable in a vibrant and energetic environment.

MILL HILL INTERNATIONAL

Mill Hill International pupils benefit from studying in their own bespoke part of campus. Whilst focusing on academic development, we make sure that each pupil can exploit their talents so that their stay is both enriching and rewarding. Pupils come to Mill Hill International from a wide variety of cultural backgrounds, but they all share our commitment to study, a strong sense of purpose, and high expectations, creating a dynamic learning environment where every pupil can achieve.

The teaching of English as an additional language (EAL) is a significant strength of the school, so those who are non-native English speakers get a lot of support in this respect, alongside their academic learning in small classes. Mill Hill International has a nurturing and thriving environment, acting as a great stepping-stone into the British Education system.
